Azel

The interaction for the angel Azel took a long time. When Ivan was waiting for God's message to pass it on, he received a short: "You are God's masterpiece" (Ephesians 2:10). At first it was a surprise, as it seemed like a very short phrase for an interaction that required so much work, however over time we have seen how God has touched the hearts of those who witness the work. Azel shows the magnificent, striking and beautiful effect on us when we come to understand and appropriate our identity, what we really are in this creation, God's Masterpiece.

Today I Choose Joy

A whimsical invitation for everyone to adopt the one attitude and to make the one choice that will assure each one of us of a peaceful and enjoyable life. The painting and animation are inspired by Ivan and Imelda's Chihuahua dogs, which are always there waiting for their arrival. Doing an outdoor activity as they are used to do. The simplicity that God put in the animals teaches us a lot. No matter what we do to them as people, they always welcome us with joy and love. A faithful reminder of hearts willing to give second chances.

Love Is Patient Love Is Kind

Ivan shares with us about this piece from his heart as a husband: “This piece was a dedication to Imelda and I did it when I understood what marriage is. Marriage is something you have to work at, it is a decision, you have to decide to make your wife (husband) happy. It is a decision that is not about whether you like it or not. You must invest time. You both are not perfect for everything to work out perfectly. You have to learn to speak the language of your partner.” Love is patient love is kind is a profound reflection of the invitation 1 Corinthians 13 makes to everyone who sincerely wants to demonstrate unconditional love as well as practice true and honest love in their lives.

The fruit of the Spirit

Usually, we think that the values described in the painting are beautiful qualities in a person's life. But the Bible has a much deeper message than that. The Bible says that it is the fruit, the result of the power of the Holy Spirit in the believer's life. A tree doesn't try hard to make its fruit to come out; the fruit only comes out naturally and healthily if there is enough water, nutrients, sun, and proper conditions for the fruit to grow. Just as the believer who receives sound teaching, has fellowship with Jesus, prays, and obeys in faith; from the believer will grow love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, faith, gentleness, and self-control. From him will grow the fruit of the Spirit.

Walk by Faith

A beautiful depiction of 2 Corinthians 5:7 where the central undergirding of our lives is the redemptive work of Jesus Christ at the cross and the ultimate reward of eternal life for each one who believes in Him. The animation was hard work, as they tried to be as faithful as possible to God's highest message of love described in John 3:16. We walk by faith is a striking painting at first sight, but the animation is like a flame that stirs the heart of the believer who wants to know more about the atoning work of his Savior, a reminder of the foundation of his faith. A sign of living hope in the person of Jesus Christ.

James 2:26

This piece is a vivid memory of Ivan of a very decisive stage of his life and career as an artist. When Ivan was taking that step of faith, where God was calling him to give his Art to God. Ivan wanted to continue doing what he already knew how to do, but the struggle between giving up what God was asking him to do continued in his heart, until he remembered that “Faith without actions is dead” -- I didn’t know what was going to happen, but I decided to let God handle my life from then on. Before this I thought I had faith but I didn’t. Without action, no matter how much faith I thought I had, it wasn’t faith.

John 10:10

Ivan shares with us about this work, which has had a great impact on his life. It contrasts the difference between having God's protection and living in constant fear for the enemy. Jesus warns us of the intentions of the enemy, to steal, to kill and to destroy. But Jesus in his great love for us and care has promised us life and life in abundance. This painting is not just a reminder of that, it is an invitation: Jesus is close to everyone who seeks him and wants to give you life.We are also very grateful to our friends: Pastor Preston and "The Life city Church" for the trust and privilege of making the original work. Be the Light

Ivan created this painting as a way of applying what he learned at a Christian conference in Bogotá, Colombia. Being the light means much more than shining with a nice personality. To be the light means to imitate what Jesus himself claimed to be (Jn. 9:5). A call to shine through good works. Acts that belong to a life where God's abundant love reigns. No one turns on a light without a purpose, and Jesus turned on light in us so that we would NOT live a secret discipleship, but one where we would be carriers of God's light. How magnificent it is that anyone who believes in Jesus can be what Jesus himself is: Light in the midst of darkness! As individuals, as study groups, as churches, and nations! ¡To light up our homes, our cities, and this confused and dark world, let's be the light of the world, let's be His light!
